Meeting Date: October 24, 2020, 11 a.m.-1 p.m. EST
Drafted: October 12, 2020

11:00–11:15 | Welcome and Introductions

- The Fredrick Douglass Park on the Tuckahoe Advisory Committee and The Design Minds will provide a brief welcome.
- The Design Minds will briefly recap the planning efforts to date and explain the purpose and goals of the meeting.

11:15–12:00 | Presentation of Interpretive Plan

- The Design Minds team will lead a presentation of the draft interpretive plan.
- The last 15 minutes of the presentation time will include opening the floor to the full group for questions and clarifications.

12:00–12:30 | Breakout Group Discussions

- Following the presentation, the full group will divide into smaller breakout sessions to discuss the proposed plan in more detail. Online participants will discuss separately from in-person attendees and may use online features such as the Zoom chat and whiteboard to share ideas.
- Within the breakout groups, each attendee will be given time to speak. Attendees should consider the following:
    - What themes and stories are best supported by the envisioned plan?
    - Are there other interpretive techniques and formats for these themes and stories that should be considered?
    - Are any of the themes and stories overemphasized? Are some not emphasized enough?
    - What is the desired visitor experience at this park?

12:30–1:00 | Report Back and Conclusion

- Following the small groups discussion, the full group will reconvene and group captains will share some of the ideas discussed in their group's conversation.
- We will conclude the meeting by discussing the next steps in the planning process and park development, as well as leaving time for any final questions.
